“ I had intended to pursue an MBA in the USA, but after reviewing my documents, Admission.ac suggested me consider a Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) instead. I am very grateful for their guidance in both university and course selection, as well as in the visa application process. I cannot fully express how helpful they have been, but I highly recommend Admission.ac to anyone considering further studies in the USA. ”

Sanjida Nasrin

International American University, USA

“ I was unsure about where to study, but the expert counselors at Admission.ac provided me with friendly and supportive guidance. They assisted me throughout the process, providing accurate information and solving any problems professionally. I was also worried about finding accommodation after getting my visa, but the team at Admission.ac helped me with that as well, connecting me with local students. If you are determined to pursue further education abroad, I highly recommend reaching out to Admission.ac. They are genuine and trustworthy. ”

Azad Emon

University of South Wales, UK

“ Admission.ac helped me to transfer my credits as I was studying bachelor program in Bangladesh. Due to COVID travel restrictions, it was uncertain to fly but they supported me with visa application and online enrollment. Finally the border opened and I attended the physical class. I got tailored support from the team which is really appreciated. I am really so thankful to them. ”

Navid Farhan Oyshik

Macquarie University, Australia

“ When you say Canada, accurate information & expert guidance are needed to obtain Admission & Visa. It wouldn't be possible for me to secure success without help from Admission.ac. They helped me to make the journey much smoother. To me, they are so professional & trustworthy. ”
